Title: Submit to One Another
Te	Text: Ephesians 5:15-21; 1 Peter 5:1-7
Big Idea: God calls us to submit to one another and mutual submission requires humility and trust.
1.	God calls us to mutual submission.
2.	Mutual submission requires humility.
3.	Humility is developed as we trust in God's goodness and love.

REVIEW THE SERMON Read Ephesians 5:15-21 and 1 Peter 1:1-7. How would you define mutual submission?
What makes mutual submission difficult?
What is the motive behind mutual submission and what character qualities are required for mutual submission to take place?
In 1 Peter 5:5, why does Peter use the phrase "clothe yourselves" when describing humility? How is putting on humility like putting on clothes?
How can you practically clothe yourself with humility?
ASSESS YOUR LIFE What keeps you from submitting yourself to a person or authority? How does trusting God's loving care (1 Peter 5:6-7) influence your thinking about the risk of humble submission?
According to Peter, grace is contingent on humility, and humility is contingent on trusting God. Based on the measure of grace in your life, how are you doing at trusting God?
APPLY THE TRUTH How do the principles of submitting yourself to one another apply to other relationships in your life? How can you show humble submission at home?
With co-workers?
At school?
With friends?
At church?
