

SERMON NOTES

Date: February 18, 2018

Series: Messy Church

Title: Qualities of an Effective Disciple-Maker

Text: 1 Corinthians 4:14-21

Big Idea: Every Christian is called to be a disciple-making disciple. What qualities do we need in order to fulfill our calling effectively?

MAKE IT REAL

Questions for Personal Application and Small Group Discussion

REVIEW THE SERMON

Name some of the people who have made the greatest impact on your spiritual walk. Describe their influence and what you have learned about God from their teaching and example? _____

Spend some time surveying the way Jesus made disciples in the Gospels. How do you observe him modeling the six qualities of an effective disciple maker in his life and ministry? _____

ASSESS YOUR LIFE

Jesus calls every Christian to be a disciple-making disciple. How well are you fulfilling this calling? Who are you discipling and who can you keep on your watch list? _____

What makes being a disciple-maker a tough but thrilling and rewarding experience? _____

APPLY THE TRUTH

If you are involved in any disciple-making relationships, how can you grow to be more effective in providing admonition, love, reproduction, example, teaching, and discipline? _____

COMMIT THIS WEEK

According to the closing illustration, are you a fisherman who doesn't fish? Commit to initiating at least one spiritual conversation with an unbeliever this week. _____